

BODY BUILDING TONIC HOLDS VAST STORE OF FOOD VALUE

Scientists Prove Father John's Medicine Is Five Times More Nourishing Than Many Common Foods We Eat.

That Father John's Medicine contains a vast store of food value and strength-building, energy-producing elements is established by recent scientific tests. This rich nourishment is in a form which is more easily taken up by the system than the common foods we eat and has many times greater food value.

When a scientist states the food value of any product, he does so in terms of "calories" which he defines as the amount of heat used to raise the temperature of one gram of water one degree. A teaspoonful of Father John's Medicine contains 25,715.76 calories. The same quantity of steak contains only 10,714 calories. By these tests also it was proven that Father John's Medicine is five times more nourishing than an equal quantity of cod fish, seven and one-half times more nourishing than an equal quantity of oysters and almost six times more nourishing than pure milk.

Because it supplies this nourishment which you do not obtain from your food and supplies it in the form which the system most easily takes up and turns into tissue, muscle, flesh and strength, Father John's Medicine has had more than sixty years of success as a food tonic for those who are weak and run down.

It is guaranteed that Father John's Medicine positively does not contain any alcohol or any dangerous, habit-forming drugs or opiates. It is a pure and wholesome, nourishing tonic food—a doctor's prescription, not a patent medicine. Begin taking it today.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Death of Private Ernest Godreau in France—Definite News That Private Adalard Barbeau is a German Prisoner—Another Wage Advance in Nearby Mills—Annual Baccalaureate Union Service.

An alien who had failed to register made a quick getaway from this town Saturday morning when Chief Michael Grimshaw went in search of him. A program of exercises has been arranged in connection with the coming graduation of a class from St. James' parochial school.

Bernard Casey, former postal clerk, now in the army, spent Sunday at his home in Danielson.

Spanish war veterans are meeting with success here in securing contributions for the Fourth of July funds for Pershing's Connecticut soldiers who are in France.

A number of Danielson people will make it a point to go to Brooklyn today, Bunker Hill day, in order to see the Putnam Phalanx, which will make a pilgrimage to General Israel Putnam's monument.

Third Degree Conferred. Members of the Knights of Columbus from all of the surrounding towns were at the town hall Sunday afternoon to witness the conferring of the third degree upon a class of candidates of Rose of Lima council.

Jolly Stag Party. At Chase's farm, East Killingly, on Sunday, George J. Heneault gave a stag party to a number of his friends from various places in this vicinity. A chowder was served.

To Raise College Fund. An effort will be made here to assist in raising a fund of $50,000 for American colleges. It was announced by Dr. L. L. Morin.

Entrance examinations for Killingly high school are being held today at the high school and are being taken by a considerable number of persons.

Whole steak has been put on sale in Danielson and some buyers who have been making an experimental order have found the meat to their liking.

Private Godreau Dies in France. Word was received here of the death in France of Private Ernest Godreau. Private Godreau went into the service from Moorup. His home formerly was in Danielson, where relatives now reside. Details of his death had not been obtained Sunday by relatives here.

Is a German Prisoner. An official telegram received here by his family Saturday establishes the fact that Private Adalard Barbeau, G. Company, 102d Infantry, is a prisoner in a German prison camp. He was reported missing in action on April 10, 1918, and his friends here have been worried over his fate, which is definitely established by Saturday's news.

Another Wage Advance. Another advance, of approximately 10 per cent, it is stated, has been given operatives in woolen mills in this vicinity, and in some of the mills the advance will become effective today. Woolen weavers are able now in many cases to earn well over $30 per week.

Registration of Enemy Alien Women. Registration of enemy alien women who have reached the age of 14 years and over will begin in Danielson this morning. All such women are obliged to register and will be subject to penalties for failure to do so. Chief Michael Grimshaw of the police will be in charge of the registration, which will continue for a period of several days in this vicinity.

British subjects who are residents within the town of Killingly have heard with more than passing interest that they are liable to be promptly drafted into the British or Canadian army service. Some of them are stating that they will volunteer for service with the United States forces, in preference to fighting under the flag of the empire.

Mark Dangerous Crossings. The New Haven Railroad company has issued a high class of warning notices that there are railroad crossings ahead. In Danielson these crossings have been set out at Franklin, Main, Hutchins and North streets. The markers are set at distances of from 200 to 500 feet from the crossings, one of them, in Main street, being opposite the Danielson Trust company building.

Opportunities for War Work. Registrants who come under the ruling that will obligate them after June 1 to give up present occupations that do not pertain to the winning of the war, will find opportunities for suitable war work awaiting them in the big manufacturing plants of Killingly. Manufacturers are to be requested to furnish the local board with a list of vacancies in which registrants can be put on what is known as government work. This work is well paid under schedules now in force and will, in fact, offer the registrants who will be required to change their employment opportunity to earn more money each week than they are now earning, and far more than the boys in khaki who are fighting in France are getting.

Several mills here that are working on government orders are short of help and will welcome the additions to their forces that will be made possible through the application of the war or fight rule.

Baccalaureate Service. Many gathered at the Westfield Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 7 o'clock to attend the annual baccalaureate service. The members of the senior class of Killingly high school set in their feet. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. T. Edwards of the Baptist church.

PUTNAM

Jail Sentence of Sixty Days For Mother Who Aided Daughter To Escape—Whole Steak New Addition to Menu—Large Class Confirmed—G. Harold Gilpatrick and Senator Archibald Macdonald Republican Delegates at Large.

In the city court Saturday morning, Judge M. H. Gelsler imposed a sentence of 60 days in jail on Mrs. Nellie Gill, charged with having aided in the escape of her daughter, Gladys, 14, from out of the custody of Captain Pee. Salvation Army, the girl's special probation officer.

Gladys was ordered last week to be committed to the state school for girls and was to have been taken to the school on Thursday. From the time the order was issued last Monday morning, between Monday and Thursday the girl was to remain in Captain Pee's charge. Monday evening the girl was permitted to go to a motion picture show with her mother, the mother agreeing to return her to Captain Pee's charge after the show. This Mrs. Gill failed to do, and the girl has disappeared.

In court Saturday Mrs. Gill said that she had permitted Gladys to go to Waterbury, in charge of a man she did not know, to visit with the girl's mother, who was in Waterbury. Mrs. Gill has established the fact that the girl is not in that city.

Going to jail isn't a new experience for Mrs. Gill. On March 1, in this city, she was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail for having kept a disorderly house. At that time her daughter was ordered committed to the state school for girls, but the execution of the order was suspended until last Monday, when it was revoked, because circumstances warranted.

Order Whole Steak and Save Money! After their first experience with a food flesh that is brand new, in variety, to them, Putnam people think they see a way to skirt through a period of likable demands of their 40 cents a pound beef, to get a better and other meat prices in the same high proportion.

Whole steak is the answer. It has been placed on sale in Putnam, at cents per pound, and those who have bought it and ate it say that it is great meat.

Having made the discovery that whole meat is good to eat, some are going so far as to say that it is a good substitute for beef. It has occurred to some persons that the proper thing to do is to propagate whole steaks, interesting the county fair bureau in this work.

As many as four whales might comfortably find space in Alexander's lake, and there are other bodies of water in this vicinity in which one to three might be boarded. Keeping a whole doesn't appear from any available statistics to be an expensive proposition. A whole finds its own food. In fact, a whole isn't at all at all. It looks after its own subsistence and just naturally stays in from the baby stage and, without any care at all, takes on a ton or more of weight a month until it weighs enough to support its own weight in a city for a year. Four good whales should be a sufficient number to keep the water level up, and in the meantime the supply of beef will be conserved and there may be such an accumulation of it in a body that it will pay persons to take it away. Therefore the raising of whales appears to be a good proposition for Putnam and vicinity, not only for the sake of the people, but also for the sake of the people who don't issue a few communique and regulations pertaining to the subject.

Young whales can be obtained without cost if some kind-hearted old gals can be found to loan their boat and a harpoon. They may be found along the Maine coast, swimming around with the kaiser's submarines, and spouting water over the seascape for the amusement of the summer resort guests. Outside of this, they are busy and, perhaps, would welcome a period of rest in the waters about Wildwood park or other such places in this vicinity.

The formation of a Whale Steak corporation has its attractions for those who have a high class of warning notices that there are railroad crossings ahead. In Danielson these crossings have been set out at Franklin, Main, Hutchins and North streets. The markers are set at distances of from 200 to 500 feet from the crossings, one of them, in Main street, being opposite the Danielson Trust company building.
